Transcript of the Dialogue from the Church Camp Episode, Scene 20 of the Movie Borat.

[Music playing, people are singing, dancing and clapping.]

Chip Pickering: It is good to be here, this is my 10th Pentecostal camp meeting, a decade.

[clapping]

Jim Smith: The bottom line is, we are a Christian nation now, we were a Christian nation in the beginning, and we're gonna always be a Christian nation until the good Lord returns! Amen.

[clapping and yelling]

Preacher: No, I didn't evolve out of a monkey, I didn't used to be a tadpole, I is what I is! The Bible says that God was manifested in the flesh and believed on in the world! I got good news - Jesus - He is God in the flesh!

[clapping and yelling]

[Man standing next to Borat -- Speaking in tongues]

Preacher: I don't care what the devil's done to you or what he's trying to do. All you gotta do is step out of that aisle now and make your way down to this alter, let's have a little old time church right now. I need somebody to pray with me right now. Come on Sir! The blood over my neighbor, I believe the blood over my church!

[Singing]

Borat: I want you to help save me, please.

Preacher: Ladies and Gentlemen, the gentleman here standing right here next to me, his name is Bolap. Would you greet him with a great big "Jesus' Name" for just a couple of minutes. [clapping] Jesus! [clapping]

Borat: Thank you. I have no friends. I am alone in this country. Nobody like me. My only friend, Ozamot, he take my money and my bear and he leave me alone. Not only this, the woman I love, the reason I travel across the country, she had to do something terrible on a boat and now I can never forgive her. Is there anybody who can help me?

Preacher: Yes, the one that can help you is who we preached about tonight.

Man: Jesus!
